DIRECTOR'S NOTES

This show has been in my head for years, therefore, I am thrilled to finally present it to you. I have enjoyed working with such a talented cast and crew, but especially my wonderful husband Kevin and son Jonmichael. We have a small company so most of the performers are playing multiple roles. It's not a mystery or a trick, just a necessity. Finally, I have always loved Charles Dickens and have read all his works and have the utmost respect for them. I have an unusual sense of humor. I love many traditional things, but I like to play with those ideas and take things out of that proverbial box, so to speak, just to keep things interesting. So, if you are a pure blood traditionalist, just open your mind to new possibilities and be ready for more than one alternate reality tonight.

Our Philosophy

We desire to train our students in a fun and loving environment that promotes excellence, self confidence and self discipline. We desire to work with the community and perform for local events to encourage harmony and goodwill. We love teaching and training students of all ages. Our facility has high tech floors, mirrors and barres.
